

Singing for Khitam

to benefit a 13-year-old deaf girl living in a refugee camp in Gaza.

Khitam, her mother, and the translator looking at the photo album we sent her

Kitchen where Khitam's mother cooks for their family of thirteen

A Concert of Vocal Music

Featuring

Sing We Enchanted and Soha Al-Jurf

Photo by Hans-Uno Persson

Members of Sing We Enchanted, a volunteer a cappella group directed by Deborah Hahn, will sing a selection of songs. The ensemble sings regularly and informally for patients, families, and staff at hospitals in San Francisco and Marin.

Photo by Myles Boisen

Palestinian-American professional singer Soha Al-Jurf will perform and read from "Even My Voice is Silence", her moving account of returning to Palestine in search of her father's village and her own identity, while realizing what it means to be a refugee. A portion of the proceeds from book sales at the benefit will be donated to Khitam and her family.

Sunday Jan 27 2013 at 4pm

First Presbyterian Church,
72 Kensington Rd, San Anselmo, Marin County, CA 94960

Suggested donation at the door: $10 - $20 sliding scale No one turned away for lack of funds
Event sponsored by 14 Friends of Palestine www.14friendsofpalestine.org and Keep Hope Alive. Wheel chair accessible