

Alison Weir, media critic from

If Americans Knew

will give a stimulating, multimedia presentation:

Israel-Palestine: What the Media Leave Out

“When the speech ended, Ms Weir was met with thunderous applause, and across the room there was a widespread sense of satisfaction that someone was saying what needed to be said.” - New York Times

“Ms. Weir presents a powerful, well documented view of the Middle East today.....American policy makers would benefit greatly from hearing her first-hand observations and attempting to answer the questions she poses. This is an intellectual, thought-provoking, and worthwhile presentation.”
